IV Human Rights

- 1. Strained relations * = Talking Point Below
 - * 2. Terrorism
 - * 3. Lists
 - * 4. Timmerman, Deutsch, Anti-Semitism
 - validity of confessing
 - * 5. Right of Option
 - * 6. Torture
 - 7. Rule of law - publication of detained due process

Terrorism

- *2 - Understand your terrible problems - Symptom

 - And exasperation you must feel when international opinion seems to ignore your struggle.
 - Particularly as international terrorism troubles many governments.
 - This negative reaction is to be expected, however, when counter-terrorist actions violate human rights and are outside the rule of law. Governments are expected to accord due process to all accused.

Lists

- *3 - You know the concern of President Carter, our government and people for the fate of many individuals.

 - I have carried here a large list of 7,500 names, compiled by a group of respected organizations (disclaimer of perfection of list). Detain or disappearance
 - In addition I have also brought a number of other names at the request of some members of our Congress and other individuals.

(Keniry - special concern for Hector Campona -)

I hope you will be able to sample them for me. They have been on their status - hopefully to report they have been released.

*4 - Timmerman, Deutsch, anti-Semitism

- In particular the Timmerman and Deutsch family cases are being viewed with grave concern -- in our country and abroad. As, in addition to their personal fates, they symbolize growing worry about anti-semitism.

*5 - Right of Option

- We are concerned that implementation of the right of option is taking so long, so complex and reaching so few people.

*6 - Torture

- We know your own feelings on torture.
- And that you are as troubled as we are by reports that torture continues to accompany detention.
